Dear Parents,

September is Roald Dahl's birth month, and each year schools celebrate with a wonderful array of events centred around his birthday on 13th September. In recognition of this festivity, we are inviting all children to 'wear something yellow' on Wednesday 13th September. (This was Dahl's favourite colour!) Items can include hair accessories, socks, t-shirts, etc. or a combination of everything!

During next week, we are also hosting a book fair in Villa Road. Children will have the opportunity to browse through the selection during the school day and to make a purchase if they so wish. All monies should be brought into school in a named purse and remain the responsibility of your child.

Further Roald Dahl themed activities, will take place during the children's Literacy lessons throughout the week, in an effort to raise pupils' awareness of one of the most popular and successful children's writers.

I hope you can join in on our Wear Something Yellow day and I look forward to seeing the children at the book fair throughout the week.

If you have any further queries, please don't hesitate in speaking to myself or your child's class teacher.

Yours sincerely

Mrs C Keyworth
Literacy Co-ordinator
