Helen Milloy

Cook at Hollygirt
School

Q How long have you worked at Hollygirt School?

A I have worked here for seven years.

Q What is your favourite memory of your time at the school so far?

A I have many but I would say my first Open Day if probably my very favourite memory. When you see prospective pupils all excited and then you see them in your dinner queue in their uniform after they have decided to join us, it is a really nice feeling.

Q What is your favourite lunch to cook and why?

A Roast dinner as the pupils love this day and you can hear the desks scrape on the floor above you as the bell is about to ring and then the feet pounding down the stairs. It always makes me smile.

Q What is your favourite part of your job?

A The morning when I see all my kids waving at me in the kitchen and their parents all smiling and then it is time to organise my lunches for the kids.

Q What makes Hollygirt special in your opinion, and why?

A I feel Hollygirt picked me to work at the school as I feel so comfortable and have a real sense of belonging. I love seeing the older children taking care of the younger children as if we all belong together.

Q Do you cook a lot in your spare time?

A Not as much as I used to. I used to cook a lot at home but do so less nowadays.

Q What is your favourite cake recipe?

A Carrot cake - I absolutely love a good carrot cake!
