

HOLLYGIRT SCHOOL

GIRLS from Nottingham's Hollygirt School enjoyed a week-long trip to the US to study the effects of the civil rights movement. The trip for the 21 year 10 and 11s was part of their GCSE history course on Government and Protest in USA 1945-1970.

Flying to Washington DC and New York, they visited the White House, the Lincoln Memorial, the Smithsonian Institute, the Capitol Building, the House of Representatives and the Supreme Court. They also took in the Empire State Building and the Statue of Liberty as well as other amazing historical sites.

And there was some time for shopping, going to the King of Prussia Mall near Philadelphia, the biggest mall on America's east coast.
