Dear Parents,

NCYW Inter-Generational Seminar Tuesday 27th November 2018
Venue: Nottingham Girls' High School
10.00am-3.00pm

I would like to invite your daughter to the above seminar; this is a fantastic opportunity to work with girls from other schools discussing issues around the topic "Women are Strong". This conference takes place yearly in Nottingham and Hollygirt has been invited to attend, with a view to becoming a member of the association. NCYW (National Council of Young Women) was formed in 2006 by a former Head Teacher, to encourage young girls to have a say about how they see their roles in society today. Its "parent association" is the NCW (National Council of Women) who are heavily involved in issues in this country and around the world. Other topics previously looked at include forced marriages, the right to an education, the right to be you and how women and girls are seen in other countries, to name but a few.

The girls will leave school at 9.30am and will be back in school by 3pm. This is a non-uniform day, but I would expect the girls to be smart but casual. The cost for the day is £8 (please bring on the day) to include materials for the day, with refreshments and lunch provided.

If you would like your daughter to attend the event, please complete and return the slip below. If you have any further enquiries, please do not hesitate to contact me at school.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Morgan
PE Teacher

I give permission for my daughter to attend the Intergenerational Seminar at the Girls' High School on Tuesday 27th November 2018. I acknowledge the need for sensible and responsible behaviour on their part. I understand that there is some level of risk in every activity but that this visit will be managed to minimise the risks involved.

I believe daughter to be medically fit to undertake this visit.
