Dear Parents

Duke of Edinburgh Silver Award

Thank you for your interest in the Duke of Edinburgh Silver Award and £100 deposit. The expedition training for the Silver Award is due to begin in March (Saturday 10th and 17th) and understandably, I have now been asked for the remainder of the course costs from Karos Adventure, our expedition providers.

The outstanding balance for all participants is £210 (please make cheques payable to Hollygirt School) and I would be grateful if this could be returned as soon as possible. Specific details regarding times and venues for the two Saturday training days will be provided by Karos Adventure in the next few weeks and I will keep you informed as this information becomes available. However, I believe both days will take place between 9am and 4pm with Saturday 10th being a walking day based in the Peak District and Saturday 17th being a planning day at school. In the meantime, should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely
